Salem & Leetonia, OH – July 5th, 2020

Dear Friends,

Happy 4th of July Weekend!

Again, congratulations to our students who received Jesus for the first time in Holy Communion recently. When the appropriate time comes, your classmates, too, will receive and share your joy.

I have talked to a lot of people who have told me that they don't watch the news. I am also aware of others who seem glued to the news. I guess I fall somewhere in the middle and try to catch different views from different perspectives. There certainly is no shortage of opinions – especially when facts are lacking, and speculation is needed.

Politics is demanding attention. Racial issues are important. People are restless about the pandemic and are not as vigilant about wearing masks, washing hands and keeping good social distance. We've got the makings for a memorable fireworks display. Alongside this, we have today's scripture readings. They speak to us of God's deliverance, blessings, and revelation. Those who rely on God will not be disappointed. They will be vindicated. God gives us the strength of the Spirit to discipline our lives to live according to the commandments of God, to love God and one another. These important times require our attentive prayers, charitable actions, and witness of faith.

Mass has resumed. Confessions are by appointment, and I try to be available on Saturdays at 3:30 pm at St. Paul Church. However, we will not use the confessionals but will walk to other rooms in the old offices for more open space.

Live stream Sunday Mass is on Facebook at ST PAUL SALEM OH, Saturdays at 4:30 pm. We can also be seen on Spectrum Cable later in the week on channel 1021: Sun: 8 am & 10 pm; Mon. 1:00 pm, Tues. 4 pm, Wed. 1 pm, Thurs. 2 pm, Fri. 10 am, Sat. – none. Online you can watch Mass at WFMJ.COM by clicking on Community; selecting "Faith Services." Under "Church Streams" click on the right for "See more," and search for St. Paul Church Salem. Thank you to Frank Zamarelli & Patrick Morrissey for filming the Masses.

Have a blessed weekend. Let us pray for our nation and for all who live within our borders. God bless you. God bless America.

With love, prayers, and gratitude,
Father Bob Edwards
